PivotHealth Names Linda Torres-Webb Vice President, Physician Operations

(Nashville, Tenn., March 19, 2009) – PivotHealth, a physician practice management company based in Nashville, Tenn., announced today the addition of Linda Torres-Webb as Vice President, Physician Operations. In this role, Torres-Webb will be responsible for the local physician practice operations within each Physician Services Company (PSC) market. Additionally, she will install and oversee practice management resources available to each PSC market to ensure excellence in financial reporting, dashboarding and physician practice consultations.

“Linda brings 25 years of diverse healthcare management experience to the table,” said John Phillips, President of PivotHealth Consulting. “She will be a tremendous asset to our Physician Operations team.”

Prior to joining PivotHealth, Torres-Webb served as Administrator PCC for Vanderbilt Medical Group of Franklin, Tenn., where she was responsible for all operational aspects of practice management for more than 40 providers. Additionally, she has served as Associate Chief Operating Officer for Vanderbilt Medical Group of Nashville, Tenn., where she oversaw the transition of community practices into Vanderbilt Medical Group. Torres-Webb has also facilitated the merger of four separate practices into one with the Premier Orthopedics and Sports Medicine, P.L.C. of Nashville, Tenn.

Torres-Webb holds a Master’s Degree in Health Services Administration from the University of St. Francis in Joliet, Ill., and a Bachelor of Arts from Southern Illinois University.
