PivotHealth Names Cyndi Wiltshire Director, Provider Enrollment

(Nashville, Tenn., July 6, 2009)—PivotHealth, a physician practice management company based in Nashville, Tenn., announced today the addition of Cyndi Wiltshire as Director, Provider Enrollment. In this role, Wiltshire will lead the performance of Provider Enrollment/Credentialing services for PivotHealth’s clients.

“Cyndi has more than 10 year of experience in the healthcare industry as a Credentialing, Provider Enrollment and Contracting Specialist,” said John W. Phillips, President of PivotHealth. “Her extensive experience in managing these important physician practice processes is a valuable service to our clients, creating significant financial impact in the early months of a physician’s practice.”

Prior to joining PivotHealth, Wiltshire served as Managed Care Coordinator with Baptist Healthcare Group MSO of Nashville, Tenn., where she functioned as organizational liaison between physician practices and payors. Additionally, Wiltshire has served as Provider Relations Liaison of Aetna, Inc., of Nashville, Tenn. There, she was responsible for contracting, developing and maintaining relationships with physician and business leadership of key physician groups, along with assisting with provider recruitment and credentialing.

Wiltshire attended Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, Tenn.
