PivotHealth Names Mark Damron Financial Analyst

(Nashville, Tenn., July 6, 2009)—PivotHealth, a physician practice management company based in Nashville, Tenn., announced today the addition of Mark Damron as Financial Analyst. In this role, Damron will be supporting PivotHealth’s consulting and operations teams by collecting, researching and analyzing data related to hospital and physician practice operations and positioning them for operational improvement and revenue growth.

“Mark will be an asset to each of PivotHealth’s business units by applying his expertise in data analysis of healthcare operations to serve our clients,” said John W. Phillips, President of PivotHealth.

Prior to joining PivotHealth, Damron served as Investment Analyst and Strategist with HealthSouth Corporation of Birmingham, Alabama, where he analyzed and modeled the economic value of acquisitions, mergers, and new businesses, and conducted internal and industry/market research and strategic analysis. Damron previously acted as Senior Financial Analyst with Trinity Medical Center of Birmingham, Ala.

Damron holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and a Master’s degree in Business Administration from Washington University in St. Louis.
