PivotHealth Names Andrew Mintz Senior Vice President

(Nashville, Tenn., December 4, 2009)— PivotHealth, LLC., a premier provider of physician practice management and consulting services announced today that they have named Andrew Mintz Senior Vice President. In this role, he serves as the Chief Administrative Officer with one of PivotHealth’s clients, Preferred Healthcare Partners (PHP) medical group, a 170-physician, multi-specialty group located in Brooklyn, New York.

“Andrew brings over 15 years of healthcare management experience and is accustomed to leading complex multi-specialty medical groups,” said John Phillips, President of PivotHealth. “His qualifications, years of experience and success in the healthcare industry will be a valuable asset to our Practice Management Division and to PHP, in particular.”

Prior to joining PivotHealth, Mintz served as the Executive Director with Summit Medical Group P.A. in Berkeley Heights, New Jersey, where he managed all operational aspects of a 120-physician, 20-midlevel provider multi-specialty group. Mintz previously served as the Chief Executive Officer with University Physicians Network/University MSO of New York, New York, where he built a MSO to negotiate and administer global and partial capitation contracts with managed care payors for a 650-physician IPA and New York University Medical Center.

Mintz holds a Bachelors Degree from the University of Michigan.
