PivotHealth Tops Chart In Best Places To Work Awards

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 8, 2010 — PivotHealth, a premier provider of physician practice management and consulting services, has topped the chart in the Nashville Business Journal's 2009 Best Places to Work Awards. PivotHealth was the overall winner in the 26-100 employees category, and was recently honored along with other leading Nashville companies.

PivotHealth was one of only 30 companies spotlighted in the seventh annual Best Places to Work Awards – and one of 10 in its employee category, along with local companies and local offices of major nationwide companies.

The Nashville Business Journal, along with Quantum Market Research of Wichita, Kan., determined the winners of the awards, which were decided through employee ratings in companies across Middle Tennessee.

“We are very honored to be recognized in the Best Places to Work awards,” said John Phillips, President of PivotHealth. “It is even more significant that our employees ranked us so highly – they are our biggest asset, and continually strive to make PivotHealth a leading health care provider in the United States.”
