

PivotHealth Names Rose Wagner Vice President, Consulting

(Nashville, Tenn., August 24, 2010) – PivotHealth, a leading physician practice management and services company based in Nashville, Tenn., announced today the addition of Rose Wagner, RN, CMPE, as Vice President, Consulting. In this role, Wagner will lead and direct physician practice management engagements to improve the overall operational effectiveness of PivotHealth clients.

“Rose brings more than 25 years of experience in healthcare administration and management,” said John W. Phillips, president of PivotHealth. “Her excellent reputation in medical group practice, specialty hospital executive search and healthcare consulting will be an asset to the PivotHealth consulting management team.”

Prior to joining PivotHealth, Wagner served as vice president, executive search, for B. E. Smith, Inc., in Lenexa, Kansas, where she led executive level searches for healthcare organizations including hospitals, clinics, surgery centers and specialty hospitals. Previously, she held several positions with Health Midwest Medical Groups, based in Kansas City, Missouri. During her tenure, Wagner served as senior vice president of operations, overseeing the operations and financials of the 140-provider multi-specialty medical group and its 35 locations, accountable for 500 full-time equivalents.

Wagner holds a master’s degree in health services management and a bachelor’s degree in management from Webster University in Kansas City, Missouri. Additionally, she earned a nursing diploma from St. Luke’s School of Nursing in Kansas City, Missouri. Wagner is also a Certified Medical Practice Executive (CMPE).
