PivotHealth Names Tom Matenaer Senior Vice President Financial Operations

(Nashville, Tenn., Feb 15, 2011) – PivotHealth, a leading physician practice management and services company based in Nashville, Tenn., has named Tom Matenaer Senior Vice President of Financial Operations.

Matenaer brings more than 25 years of financial management experience through external and internal leadership positions with physician group practices and multiple medical groups.

As Senior Vice President of Financial Operations, Matenaer will be responsible for financial management, forecasting, and financial advising. He will serve a dual role, as both a consultant and as an executive manager for PivotHealth affiliated physician practices.

“Tom is an excellent addition to our financial leadership team,” said John Phillips, president of PivotHealth. “His extensive financial management and healthcare experience will be of great value to our hospital and medical group clients.”

Prior to joining PivotHealth, Matenaer served as Vice President of Finance for Allina Hospitals and Clinic in Minneapolis, Minn., where he directed and coordinated the financial reporting of the medical group as a result of a merger with a large healthcare integrated delivery system (IDS). Previously, he served as Chief Financial Officer for Aspen Medical Group in St. Paul, Minn., a not-for-profit medical group with 170 providers and nine clinic locations. Matenaer also worked with PhyCor, as Chief Financial Officer for Straub Clinic and Hospital in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he was responsible for the financial and information systems management of an IDS, including a 159-bed hospital, 175-physician medical group, and a 25,000-member HMO. Additionally, Matenaer was Chief Financial Officer for Physician Plus Medical Group in Madison, Wisc., a 240-physician for-profit medical group that was the majority owner of a 85,000-member HMO.

Matenaer holds a master’s degree in Business Administration and Management, and a bachelor’s degree in Accounting from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, as well as being a certified public accountant in the State of Wisconsin. Additionally, Matenaer is affiliated with the Medical Group Management Association, the American Management Group Association, and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
