Danbury Health Systems Selects PivotHealth for Physician Services Company Feasibility Assessment

(Nashville, Tenn., April 6, 2010)—PivotHealth, a premier provider of physician practice management and consulting services based in Nashville, Tenn., announced today that they have been selected by Danbury Health Systems of Danbury, Connecticut to assist in the evaluation and design of various physician alignment initiatives for the 371-bed facility.

“With a focus of meeting, head on, the continuing challenges in healthcare, Danbury Health Systems is demonstrating its leadership through the development of initiatives to facilitate greater connectivity and collaboration between the hospital and physicians within the Danbury community,” said John Phillips, President of PivotHealth. “We are pleased to be assisting its leadership team in this important work.”

About Danbury Health Systems

Danbury Health Systems is a not-for-profit health system providing a comprehensive range of health care services to residents of western Connecticut and southeastern New York. At the center of the system is Danbury Hospital, a full-service 371-bed community teaching hospital. It provides primary, emergency, surgical, and rehabilitative care; it operates outpatient facilities that offer diagnostic, community health, and minor emergency services. Danbury Health System also includes an occupational health organization, a home health care/visiting nurse program, and a regional emergency transportation service. Danbury also provides hospice care and counseling for terminally ill patients and their families.
