Staten Island Physician Practice Renews PivotHealth Management Contract

(Nashville, Tenn., October 23, 2006)-- PivotHealth, LLC., a provider of physician practice management and consulting services nationwide, announced today that they have been selected by Staten Island Physicians Practice, P.C. of Staten Island, New York to provide overall group management and operational services to the multi-specialty medical group practice. The multi-year services contract extends PivotHealth's relationship with Staten Island Physicians Practice through 2009 and continues the company's rapid growth in the physician practice management business.

"The Staten Island Physicians Practice is the leading multi-specialty medical group in Staten Island, and we are pleased to continue our relationship with the organization for the next several years," said John Phillips, president of PivotHealth, LLC, a physician practice management and consulting company. "Through our work over the last one to two years we have initiated, together with the medical group, a number of growth and improvement initiatives and we look forward to working with them to further expand its services, enhance its quality and improve its service to the people of Staten Island."

"The extension of our contract with Staten Island Physicians Practice is indicative of the success of our management model," stated Mike McClintock, President of PivotHealth Management Company. The company recently received a five-year extension of its contract to manage the prestigious Mercy Medical Group in Sacramento, CA, a 185 physician group affiliated with Catholic HealthCare West Medical Foundation.
